Pastoral Council Commission Reports

Faith Formation: In March Catherine of Sienna program is here. Psalms Bible Study is beginning.

Liturgy: Evaluation of Advent and Christmas. Beginning to look towards Lent.

Social Justice: March 20th is the peanut butter lunch bunch. St. Joe's is heading the program this year as well as the distribution. Food Pantry—we have volunteers for adding one more day. Haiti-sponsor a child program—Christmas cards and pictures were received and will be passed on to the appropriate sponsors.

Finance: Several Capital Donations came in over Christmas so the cafeteria floor was paid in full. We do have a Capital Project Wish list—it is even listed on the website.

Diocesan Annual Appeal is in March during Lent.

Parish Survey: A draft of the survey was passed out and discussed. Father will redraft. We are hoping to roll out the survey before Lent begins.

Cluster: The Cluster group is meeting more often.

Volunteerism: The growing need for volunteers was discussed. Father will be talking to Nan to see if Parish Life may be able to get “Time and Talent” brochures or some other volunteer brochure out more often. Will also talk to Nan about “neighborhood” program.

News and Upcoming Events

Fr. Dulli will be coming in March. He will be Parochial Vicar. His duties will be split between weekends at St. Joes as well as summer duties at Camp Gray and continuing his Masters Degree.

Festival: No dance this year. Tractor Pull and Festival to go as usual. Trying to sell more raffle tickets—will put more tickets in packet.
